Important Notice

Your duty of disclosure

Before you enter into an insurance contract, you have a duty to tell us anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, may affect our decision to insure you and on what terms. You have this duty until we agree to insure you. You have the same duty before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate an insurance contract.

You do not need to tell us anything that:

- reduces the risk we insure you for; or
- is common knowledge; or
- we know or should know as an insurer; or
- we waive your duty to tell us about

If you do not tell us anything

If you do not tell us anything you are required to, we may cancel your contract or reduce the amount we will pay you if you make a claim, or both. If your failure to tell us is fraudulent, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

Claims made policy

The Policy is issued on a claims made and notified basis. This means that the Policy only covers the Insured for claims first made against the Insured during the Period of Insurance and notified to us during the Period of Insurance. Section 40(3) of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 may provide additional rights at law. That section provides that where the insured gave notice in writing to the insurer of facts that might give rise to a claim against the insured as soon as was reasonably practicable after the insured became aware of those facts but during the period of insurance, the insurer is not relieved of liability under the contract in respect of the claim, when made, by reason only that it was made after the expiration of the period of insurance.

Retroactive date

The proposed insurance may be limited by a Retroactive Date. If so, the policy will not cover any claims or circumstances arising from any events, services, activities, errors or omissions or conduct prior to the Retroactive Date.

Subrogation

Where you have prejudiced Artisan Underwriting Pty Ltd (including its Insurers or underwriters) rights to recover a loss from another party, this may have the effect of excluding or limiting the Underwriters liability in respect of that loss.

Privacy Notice

We safeguard your privacy and the confidentiality of your personal information and are committed to handling your personal information in a responsible way. We will abide by the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) (the 'Act') including the Australian Privacy Principles which are set out in the Act. We have developed a Privacy Policy that sets out how we collect, store, use and disclose your personal information. Please refer to our website below for a copy of our Privacy Policy.
